

Wild About Mid Sussex, Exhibition, Martlets Hall, Burgess Hill, 10am-4pm Saturday 6th November.

PRESS RELEASE

This new and exciting event is organised by the Friends of Burgess Hill Green Circle Network in conjunction with local councils. Our local wildlife conservation charity with nearly 1,000 members is presenting a day of free activities for families and children of all ages. They will be bringing the countryside into the Martlets Hall for the day for everyone to enjoy. About 40 exhibitors will be offering information and activities linked to their particular aspect of wildlife. The RSPB will feature birds and BC butterflies etc. Information, games, presentations etc will be included about flowers, trees, dragonflies, badgers, bats...and many more. Find out about other local groups, sites to visit from Ashdown Forest to the South Downs, wildlife rescue, endangered species, enjoyable walking routes – especially the Burgess Hill Green Circle - for walking and riding. Free face-painting, junk modelling, puzzles, discovery trails, talks and film shows.

Don't Miss It

Wild About Mid Sussex

(Action-packed wildlife exhibition)

Saturday, 6th November
Martlets Hall, Burgess Hill

10am – 4pm

ADMISSION FREE

Discover your local countryside

Hands-on activities, games, information,
Free art / craft & gifts for all ages
40 exhibitors